INCIDENT SUMMARY:

On Wednesday, 04/22/2020, at 1:15 a.m., members of the Pembroke Pines Police Department responded to a Home Invasion Robbery within the Encantada community.

A preliminary investigation revealed that the victim was sleeping, and was awakened by a noise he heard inside the home. As he went to investigate he found an unknown suspect inside of his residence. The suspect threatened to harm the victim if he did anything, or contacted the police. The suspect demanded internet and food for his family.

The suspect proceeded to ransack the home and remove various items. The victim was not injured.

The suspect fled the area, and police were contacted. Police K-9 and BSO Aviation were deployed to assist our officers in locating the suspect in the area. Our search met with negative results.

We are asking residents to remain cautious as we continue to actively investigate this incident. If you see any suspicious persons(s) or vehicle(s) do not hesitate to call 911.
