INCIDENT SUMMARY:

On February 16, 2021 at approximately 1:05 p.m. members of the Pembroke Pines Police Department responded to a 9-1-1 emergency call in the area of NW 93rd Way & NW 23rd Street, regarding a one-year-old female drowning victim. Our initial investigation revealed that the child was found unresponsive in the pool by family members.

Upon the arrival of first responders the child was immediately transported to Memorial Hospital West for treatment, but regrettably died despite all life saving efforts.

The investigation into this incident remains on-going. We will share additional information as it becomes available.
