INCIDENT SUMMARY:

On July 29, 2021, members of the Pembroke Pines Police Department responded to Master Franco's Taekwondo Academy based upon a report of video voyeurism.

An initial investigation revealed that a female student noticed two hidden cameras discretely placed within picture frames on a shelf located in the academy's restroom. The female student photographed the hidden cameras and confronted Robert Danilo Franco, who in turn destroyed the picture frames and hidden cameras.

These confrontation caused the female student to walk outside of the academy and call her father, who in turn responded to Master Franco's Taekwondo Academy. Immediately following, the student and her father called 911 and Pembroke Pines Police Officers were dispatched.

The courageous actions of the juvenile student led to a thorough examination all aspects of this investigation, the seizure of evidence, and ultimately an arrest warrant.

In coordination with his attorney, Robert Danilo Franco surrendered himself to the Broward County Jail and is facing multiple counts of criminal charges.

The Pembroke Pines Police Department urges anyone who may have attended or visited, or whose children attended or visited Master Franco's Taekwondo Academy, to come forward if the academy's restroom was used. The expectation of privacy was violated for other undressed & unsuspecting victims who remain unidentified.
