injuries were reported. However, the gunfire caused property damage to the victims' vehicle, two other parked vehicles, and the exterior of an adjacent apartment located at 700 SW 110 Avenue.

Seconds later, the suspects drove away at a high rate of speed.

Although neither victim contacted 911 for help, several other concerned residents did.

Investigators developed information that would suggest this incident is not likely a random act of violence, nor is it believed that a credible threat to the community exists.
