INCIDENT SUMMARY:

Pembroke Pines police officers arrested a suspect who was wielding a machete and seriously injured two victims during an incident that occurred within the Encantada community.

At approximately 5:19 p.m. on Monday, February 24, 2025, Pembroke Pines police officers received multiple "911" calls about a suspect with a machete near SW 190 Avenue & SW 15 Street.

A preliminary investigation revealed that a service worker (Victim #1, adult male) was at a home conducting repairs when he was attacked by 38-year-old Darrell Dean Roberts, a resident of the same home. The worker's injuries are serious and required emergency medical care.

Another resident of the home (Victim #2, adult female) stepped between the two men to intervene. The suspect then attacked Victim #2 with the machete, causing life-threatening injuries which prompted a rescue helicopter to airlift her to a trauma center.

Responding police officers located Roberts and quickly placed him under arrest. Roberts is being charged with two counts of Attempted Homicide.

Aspects of this incident are considered domestic in nature and no additional threats to the community exist since Roberts was transported to the Broward County jail.
